

Breach House Cottages

Introduction

Our cottages are in the beautiful Wiltshire village of Urchfont and offer self-catering accommodation in two converted barns. The Pottery has one double room while Breach Cottage has a double & a twin room suitable for two adults & two children.

Both units retain some of the features of the original barn and are single story units. Access to the front doors is over a graveled parking area, which could prove difficult for pushchairs and wheel chairs.

Pre-Arrival

- We are located on the quiet lane through the village and the drive with off road parking is clearly signed Breach House Cottages.
- The nearest general stores & post office is a 3 minute walk from the cottage & the nearest main shopping center is 5 miles away in Devizes
- The nearest bus stop is approximately ¼ mile, which runs services to Devizes, Salisbury and Bath. There is a local bus that can be booked by phone and then the Village bus, which travels to and from Devizes in the mornings and some afternoons. The nearest railway station is 8 miles away at Westbury.
- We have one dog and welcome one small well-behaved dog but not cats.
- Our website www.breachhouse.co.uk provides pictures of both interiors and exteriors of the cottages.
